

The ABCs of Human Rights: A Community Voice Project

Educator Call

REF: ABC/EC/001

The Malta Human Rights Education Centre (MHREC) is seeking dynamic and passionate educators to join us in delivering an innovative adult learning project

“The ABCs of Human Rights: A Community Voice Project.”

This project invites adult learners from diverse backgrounds to co-create a community booklet where each letter of the alphabet represents a key human rights concept. Through interactive sessions, participants will reflect, write, and share their perspectives on the meaning of human rights in Malta today. The booklet will be launched publicly and shared with local councils to spark dialogue and awareness at the community level.

The Role

We are looking for educators who can:

- Facilitate two interactive learning sessions (2.5 hours each) with adult learners on 20th September 2025 in Malta and 4th October 2025 in Gozo.
- Guide participants in exploring human rights concepts in creative and accessible ways.
- Support learners in expressing their reflections (through writing, art, or storytelling).
- Collaborate with MHREC on the co-creation of the booklet (5 hours) and its online public launch (2 hours).

Requirements

- Proven experience in human rights education, civic education, or related fields.

- Experience working with diverse adult learner groups (including migrants, refugees, and vulnerable individuals).
 - Strong facilitation skills, with a participatory and inclusive approach.
 - Commitment to MHREC's values of dignity, equality, and community engagement.
 - VAT Number
-

Why should you apply for the role?

- Be part of an innovative human rights education initiative in Malta.
 - Contribute to a community-driven resource that will live beyond the project through ongoing dissemination.
 - Work with a supportive and passionate team committed to making human rights accessible and relevant to everyday life.
-

How to apply

Interested educators are invited to send:

- A short expression of interest (max 300 words) describing their background and approach to facilitation.
- A brief CV highlighting relevant experience.
- Quotation in Euro currency and inc. VAT (if required)

Please send applications to info@maltahrec.com by 12th September 2025.

This non-formal learning opportunity is co-funded under Erasmus+ through the Directorate for Lifelong Learning and Employability (DLE) within the Ministry for Education, Sport, Youth, Research and Innovation (MEYR).